Quarterly reports:

Al P. Al will continue to set up Archives anywhere he is asked.

CPC: This last quarter the CPC set up a display of AA literature (pamphlets, books, meeting directories, Grapevines, etc.) at the 2011 Recovery Rally held on September 24th at Phoenix Park in E.C. Al P. and Dick P. manned the display. Approximately 110 people attended the Rally, with a number of speakers from the Drug Court system. About a dozen people stopped at our display to talk and take some pamphlets and meeting directories.

The CPC display (and canopy) were also used by Nickolas S. for Chippewa Valley Pride event at Carson Park this summer.

Treatment: Craig was very busy this quarter contacting people at the Arbor Place, setting up a panel through the end of the year. He also talk to someone from Luther's Journey program and people will share their stories the 3rd Wed. of the month for about 30-45 mins. He posed the questions of whether or not District 5 should be sending people to District 6 treatment center?? GSR's will be taking that back to their groups.

Next month: Gary will do Concept 11 and Nickolas Tradition 11.

Meeting adjointed with the Serenity Prayer.
